Alex

Hey there, I'm Alex, a mediadesign graduate with a love for photography. Over the years, I've specialized in event photography, particularly weddings and prom nights. When I'm not behind the camera, you can often find me strumming my guitar or exploring the beautiful mountains of Austria.

Lately, I've been increasingly interested in technology and programming. My goal is to improve my programming skills and ultimately break into the tech industry. I'm excited to see where this new adventure takes me!
